Rachel enthusiastically called her little brother.
"Johnny, come into the bathroom!
There is a nice surprise for you!"

What is that strange thing in the bathroom?
It looks like a bath, but it is too small to bathe in.
Johnny was confused
yet very curious...

"It is a potty!"
exclaimed Rachel proudly.

Rachel knows what the potty is for and she cannot wait to explain it to her little brother.
She starts by saying...

"You see, I have knickers..."

"... you have a diaper.
You too are becoming a big boy
and from today on, you will use the potty!"

Rachel starts the lesson:
"Once you wear knickers, you must pull them down and sit comfortably on the potty."

"Like this,
watch me!"

Johnny takes off his diaper and puts his knickers on.

"Now what do I do?"
He thinks
to himself,
confused.
Johnny sits his bunny
on the potty!

"No Johnny,
YOU have to sit
on the potty!"
Rachel corrects him.

"Now we wait until we go pee pee or poo poo..."

Johnny decides to try.
He waits and waits,
but no pee pee comes out.
How boring!

"Afterwards, you must wipe yourself and wash your hands! Go on Johnny, you try!"

Johnny is very confused...

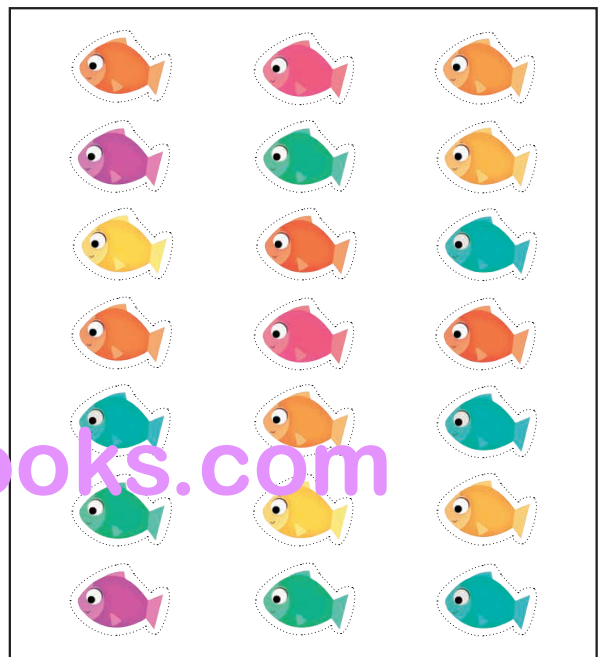

Using the potty
is not that simple!

Although after many, many, many tries
(and a few accidents!)...

... Johnny finally learns to use the potty!
"Very good!" exclaims Rachel proudly.

Learn to use
the potty-chair with Johnny!
Be careful, follow
Rachel's instructions perfectly!

Paste the little fish
on the potty training chart and you too become a potty expert!
